

HEINER TAKE - BIOGRAPHY

Heiner Take was born in Hamburg in 1962 in Hamburg. His parents owned a pub. When he was 16 he joined a dance theater company . After high school Heiner followed his strong sense of freedom-hunting and went on extensive hitchhiking trips through the USA. Back in Germany he absolved an intensive actors training at the Zinner-Studio in Munich. In the early eighties Heiner moved to Amsterdam and joined a group of performance artists from Belgium and the Netherlands. Next stop was Berlin with its then wild & vivid off-theaters. After that Heiner enjoyed numerous engagements at the Theaters of Bochum, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Mannheim, Darmstadt, Linz, Bern and (from 2010 to 2017) Saarländisches Staatstheater. 2017 he joined the ensemble of the Staatstheater Braunschweig .

He appeared in several academy projects und played some roles in TV- productions, e.g. in SCHWARZ GREIFT EIN, DER CLOWN and SCENE OF THE CRIME.
