

SUSANNE STEIDLE - BIOGRAPHY

Susanne Steidle was born in 1964. She grew up in Essen-Werden and received early dancing lessons at the Folkwangschule Essen. Her father being a professor for graphic design and painting, and her mother an sculptress, she was at a very early stage surrounded and confronted with arts an encounter that culminated in private studies of printing graphics and watercolour painting with her father. After studying acting and musical in Hamburg, 13 years of theater work led her to Düsseldorf, Munich, Hamburg. She participated in a number of open air and tour theater events. An excursion as chanssoniere led her to the cabaret stage DAS SCHIFF where she met Gert Fröbe and Heinz Reincke. Susanne's TV debut was made in LINDENSTRASSE, soon followed by different roles in TV series like CITY EXPRESS, OPPEN UND EHRlich, SOKO 5113 and SOKO WISMAR. For about ten years she appeared as lead in the popular TV series MARIENHOF in Munich. 2011 she was to be seen as Henriette Stein in ROTE ROSEN. In 2009 and 2010 Susanne is playing the main role in the stage production of SKLAVIN IHRES GELIEBTEN at the Heppenheim Theater Festival, and she is Elvira in Coward's EIN GEIST KOMMT SELTEN ALLEIN at the Fritz-Rémond Theater in Frankfurt. At the Schlossfestspiele Ettlingen 2012 she interprets in Shakespeare's THE TEMPEST the role of Ariel, 2013 Sophie in VIER LINKE HÄNDE at the Komödie im Marquardt Stuttgart, in 2014 Barbara in the stage production of Ray Cooneys RUN FOR YOUR WIFE at the Heppenheim Theater Festival and 2017 the Duchess of York in THE KING'S SPEECH at the Theater an der Kö in Düsseldorf. Recently she was on Tour with Yazmin Reza's BELLA FIGURA. Susanne Steidle lives in Essen.